

Train the Tutor Trainer Course

Deadline: Friday, March 19, 2010

Florida Literacy Coalition
Florida's Adult and Family Literacy Resource Center

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Does your program need tutor trainers?

This three session course will focus on competencies needed to be a good tutor trainer, providing curriculum and resources to offer a tutor training workshop. The format will include classroom and small group work, practice presentations and distance learning instruction.

Course content will include:

- A) Tutor training competencies
- B) Tutor training content knowledge in both adult basic literacy and ESOL
- C) Curriculum modules
- D) Presentations by participants reviewed by instructor and peers
- E) Discussion of ProLiteracy Trainer Certification system

Though participants will not become certified through this training, the course is aligned to the ProLiteracy National Trainer Certification requirements and will prepare participants to complete the certification process with ProLiteracy. Participants must be registered by their program managers or training coordinators and must commit to attend all three sessions.

This course would benefit the following participants:

- New Trainers
- Trainers working on updating their tutor training workshops
- Trainers seeking ProLiteracy Trainer Certification
- Trainers interested in improving their skills, not pursuing certification
- Program Managers (observers only)

Qualifications: Participants must have attended a tutor training workshop and/or have relevant teaching/tutoring experience. Due to the online nature of one session, each participant must also have access to a personal computer with a printer, internet connection and working e-mail account.

Course Fee:

$25.00 per person. Travel reimbursement of up to $350.00 per person to attend both of the two in-person sessions is available through the State Literacy Resource Center, a program of the Florida Literacy Coalition.

Course Dates and Locations (participants must commit to attend all 3 sessions)
