

29th Annual Florida Literacy Conference

Adult Learner Day

May 8, 2013

8:30 AM – 5:00 PM

South Seas Island Resort, Captiva

Adult Learners Attend for FREE!

Join adult learners from throughout the state of Florida for a special day of workshops and activities.

Keynote Speaker: Nelson Lauver

Nelson Lauver spent several years struggling as a functionally illiterate young adult before he was diagnosed with dyslexia. He finally learned to read and write after the diagnosis. Today, Nelson is an acclaimed author, journalist, nationally syndicated broadcaster, and educational rights advocate. He was the host and creator of The American Storyteller Radio Journal from 2001 to 2010. In 2011, he wrote an award-winning memoir titled, “Most UnLikely to Succeed.”

Session topics include:

- Financial Literacy
- How to use the Library
- Computer basics for the 2014 GED
- Reading strategies for Family Literacy
- The Adult Learner Experience

For more information on Adult Learner Day or the Florida Literacy Conference, go to floridaliteracy.org/conference_ald.html

Registration Flyer:

www.floridaliteracy.org/2013AdultLearnerDayRegistrationForm.pdf