

FREE ONLINE TUTOR TRAINING COURSE!!!

Are you in need of a refresher
...but aren't looking to spend 8 hours in the classroom?

Are new tutors signed up for your next training,
... but you risk losing them because of the wait?

Looking to try something new for you and your volunteers?

If you have answered YES to any of these questions, then we have the solution for you. The Florida Literacy Coalition is facilitating an online tutor training course FEBRUARY 6-24. Users can go through the course at their own leisure during these three weeks and get familiarized with adult basic education and ESL techniques.

No foreign language skills or prior teaching experience required. Erika Greene, a ProLiteracy certified trainer, will be facilitating this course.

For a course demo, go to www.floridaliteracy.org/training and click "Login" to create a new account. Follow the "demo directions" from there. For more information, contact Annie Schmidt at schmidta@floridaliteracy.org or (407)246-7110 ext 207.

Topics Include:

- Second Language Acquisition
 - Cultural Awareness
- How adults learn
 - Phonemes
