

Tutor/ Teacher In-Service Workshop

Free Online Training

Fantastic, Fabulous, and Free Web Resources

Date: October 8 Time: 12:00 noon - 1:30 pm

Description: Do you know how many free resources are out on the Internet for teachers, tutors, volunteers and students? Knowing how and where to find them can seem like an impossible mission. Come learn about some great resources that are quick & easy to use for learners at all levels and for all subjects! By the end of this session, you'll have terrific web-based tools for your educational toolbox!

At the conclusion of this session individuals will be able to:

- Understand how to use a web-conferencing system like Elluminate;
- Compile a list of free web resources of educational value;
- Explore and play with no fewer than 3 key educational websites.

Fee: Free. Please share this with your fellow tutors and teachers.

Participate from the comfort of your own home or office. All you need is a computer with speakers and an access to the Internet. How does it work? We will send you a web address (URL) when you register. Approximately 5-10 minutes before the workshop is scheduled to begin, you simply go to that URL, enter your full name, and click "Login" to access the session.

Presenter: Kimberly Gates has been a GED Online instructor for the Broward County Public Schools since 2002. She serves as the consortium coordinator and eLearning facilitator for the Florida Adult and Technical Distance Education Consortium (FATDEC) and was the first recipient of the Anita Ryall Excellence in Adult or Career & Technical Virtual Education Award (2007). Last year, Kimberly was named Sheridan Technical Center's teacher of the year.

A collaborative learning event brought to you by the Florida Adult Literacy Resource Center, a program of the Florida Literacy Coalition. This workshop is made possible through the support of the Florida Department of Education, Division of Workforce Education.
