

Free Online Adult Educator Financial Literacy Webinar

Making Financial Literacy Relevant in Difficult Times

Presented by Goodwill Industries of Central Florida and Florida Literacy Coalition

Date: March 13, 2012

Time: 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Objective: Difficult economic times are affecting us all. Participants in this webinar will gain a practical understanding of financial literacy tools and contacts through Goodwill Industries and the Florida Literacy Coalition.

Upon completion of this training you will have the latest financial literacy resources to help you provide students with guidance and hope for the future. This webinar will offer you ideas from leading professionals in the field working with debt solutions, student loans and money management, VITA services, and breaking the emotional barriers that prevent dealing effectively with moving out of poverty's grip. Join us and discover helpful tools to incorporate into your lesson plans and contacts to help those plans succeed.

This webinar is free! Please share this with your fellow tutors and teachers.

Participate from the comfort of your own home or office. All you need is a computer with speakers and an access to the Internet. How does it work? We will send you a web address (URL) when you register. Approximately 5-10 minutes before the workshop is scheduled to begin, you simply go to that URL, enter your full name, and click "Login" to access the session.

Presenter: Marilyn Gordon is the Director of Vocational and Community Services of Goodwill Industries of Central Florida. She has had a lifelong interest and commitment to the rights of all people. Her career includes work as a Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor in the state of Florida; she has directed and managed employment programs for the Epilepsy Association of Central Florida, the Center for High-Tech Training at Valencia Community College, and since 1996 she has been giving her talents to Goodwill Industries of Central Florida.
