

David is currently obtaining a Bachelors of Science in Hospitality Management from the University of Central Florida. With plans to graduate in May, he will pursue a career in Convention/Conference Planning. David will be assisting with the coordination and fund raising for the 2010 Florida Literacy Conference He is also actively involved with the Professional Convention Management Association, serving as President on the 2008-09 UCF Executive Board.