

Article Continued: Promising Practices Among Florida's Adult and Family Literacy Program

e-Literacy News
September 2009

Information is provided on the successes and challenges encountered by each program with the understanding that these models can be replicated and adapted to varying program circumstances.

Lawyers for Literacy

A program of the Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County.

Lake Wales Family Literacy Coalition

An Initiative of The Family Literacy Academy of Lake Wales

The Workplace Literacy Program

A Program of the Collier County Public Library Literacy Program.

ESOL for Adults

A Program of the Marion County Literary Council, Inc.

eLearning Broward

A Program within the Sheridan Technical Center of the Broward County Public Schools.

Special thanks the Florida Department of Education, Division of Workforce Education for supporting this project and to the organizations that are listed above for sharing their work and the secrets of their success.

FLC plans to add new promising practices in the coming year in hopes that these initiatives will as a source of ideas and inspiration for others in our field.